FUTILE ATTEMPT TO KILL HERSELF

Woman Fires Four Shots, With Suicidal Intent Is Police Theory.

In a mood of despondency last night shortly after 7 o'clock, Mrs. Joseph Parrish attempted to commit suicide, of her boarding house, $06 East Clay Street, by shooting herself. In some Shirts four shots from a 32-callbre revolver, she did not wound herself. No one witnessed the shorting, and Mrs. Par-rish could not explain how she es-lodger in the house heard the of the stairway. Leaving the house, Eighth and Broad Streets, told Patrolman Bosquett a oman had attempted to commit suiand seeing the prostrate form of the woman lost no time in summoning the City Hospital ambulance. Dr. H. T. Hawkins responded, and a careful examination by him disclosed the fact that Mrs. Parrish was unhurt.

Three of the bullets were found im-hedded in the wall, while a close search failed to show what had become of

CIVIC BODY IS CITED

Chicago Board of Trade Sued by Fed-Chicago Board of Trade Sued by Federal Government.

Chicago, Ill., February 12.—The Chicago Board of Trade, the great grain exchange of the United States, has been charged by the Federal government, in a civil antitrust suit filed here, with viloating the Sherman law by arbitrarily fixing, during the hours the exchange is closed, the prices of wheat. onts and rye to be received in

The government's petition in equity asks the United States District Court for a temporary restraining order, to be followed after final hearing with a permanent injunction, prohibiting the 1.500 and more members of the board from continuing an alleged unlawful conspiracy to destroy compatible.

kerson, of Chicago.

HOPES TO AVOID STRIKE

Judge Knapp Begins Conferences With

crists would be averted.
Elisha Lee, chairman of the con

Elisha Lee, chairman of the conference committee of railroad managers, reiterated to-day his contention that the railroads were sincerein their stand and had no desire "to awe woodrow Wilson with a great strike."

Washington, February 12.—The first move of a proposed investigation into the civil service to find out how many employes have been envered by its rese.

Shirts at $1.18.

$50c Neckwear at 29c, or 4 for $1.00.

shots, and running into the hall, Mrs. Parrish lying at the foot stateway. Leaving the hall, stateway. Leaving the hall stateway. the sale, and the sale reaches Adjoining States.

The petition is signed by Attorney-General Wickersham, James A. Fowler, assistant to the Attorney-General, and United States Attorney James H. Wilkerson, of Chicago.

The committee took no action to-day on Senator Root's amendment, which would repeal the free toil section of the left passed last August. Another session will be held

AGREEMENT IN MICHIGAN

Judge Knapp Begins Conferences With Railroad Firemen in New York.

New York, February 12.—Judge Martin A. Knapp of the commerce court, one of the mediators under the Erdman law, reached New York early today from Washington, prepared to extend his offices to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen and the conference committee of the fifty-four castern railroads, deadlocked over the question of wages and working conditions. The judge has at his assistant G. W. W. Hanger, acting commissioner of labor.

Although the firemen have voted overwhelmingly for a strike unless their demands are granted or the differences settled by mediation—a decision officially reported to the railroads yesterday—both sides expressed themewed hope to-day that with Messrs Knapp and Hanger on the scene a crists would be averted.

Ellisha Lee, chairman of the control of the scene a crists would be averted.

Progressive and Regular Republicans action in the sum of the comminate officials.

Lansing, Mich., February 12.—With the control of the committees and leaders of the so-called "progress action of the solution and leaders of the so-called "progressive and leaders of the so-called "progressive and leaders of the so-called "progressive" and "regular" factions. Michigan Republicans late yesterday, in State convention, nominated candidates for justices of the Supreme Court and munic tice.

February 12.—With the committees and leaders of the so-called "progressive" and "regular" factions. Michigan Republicans late yesterday, in State convention, nominated candidates for justices of the Supreme Court and minor offices to be filled at the spring eration of the committees.

Supremental Nominate Officials.

Lansing, Mich., February 12.—With process adjusted at meetings of the committees and leaders of the so-called "progressive" and "regular" factions, Michigan Republicans late yesterday.

Supremental Republicans and the committees and leaders of the supreme Court and minor of PROBE OF CIVIL SERVICE.

Woodrow Wilson with a great strike, as was charged by President Carter employes have been covered by its pro-of the brotherhood when yesterday's tection without having merited it is onference broke up.

Mr. Carter and the adjustment committee of the union discussed their by Representative Carter, of Okla-of this famous Turkish-blend.

homa, who will be the ranking member of the Committee on Reform in the Civil Service at the next Congress.

Mr. Carter says he believes there are hundreds of employed now in the civil service who have not merited the protection they have received, and to that end his resolution calls upon the President to furnish "all names of the present employes in the civil service, the date of appointment and salary paid each, the same to be compiled in government.

Calls Well Defined Organizations Essential to Success of This Government. two lists, one showing the names of all those who have passed into the ser-vice by regular examination and the other showing the names of those who cessities and ponder these prices:

Big lot $2.50, $2 and $1.50
Shirts at $1.15.

Just to clean up the Shirt stock.

$50c Neck wear at 29c or 4 like to see it extended in some direct tions, but that he does not stand for Just to introduce Berry Scarves to wholesale coverings in the service by every man in Richmond. wholesale coverings in the service by order. He is now in Sklahoma, but it nearly every item in the big store! ROOSEVELT AGAIN

After the conference Judge Knapp said no statement would be made at present. He and his fellow-mediator will next hear the railroads' side of tween the then Supreme Court and the leading officers of the reactionary party will next hear the railroads' side of the controversy, and, he hoped, some middle ground might be reached. To-day at any rate, he added, no strike would be called

Beyond to-day Judge Knapp declined to commit himself to predictions, though he emphasized that it loss; though he emphasized that it necessimistic inference should necessimistic

Representatives of the railroad said to-day that it should be understood that Messrs, Knapp and Hanger are not acting as arbitrators under the Erdman act, to which the roads object, but merely as mediators called in at the request of the firemen.

CANAL TOLLS DISCUSSED

Hinted at Hearing That Railroads Oppose No Cost Plan.

Washington, February 12—The extent of railroad influence at work to repeat the free toil provision of the Panama Canat law; the obligation of the Contral open the country of the country of the country of the country under the guidance of great principles will come again into the country of the country under the guidance of great principles will come again into the country of the country under the guidance of great principles will come again into the country of this outpers when the country of that time ran so high that Thomas Jefferson found it personally unpleasant to continue as the Secretary of State in George Washington's Cabinet, but the parties that were organized in time were organized according to the great principles of the government and not upon the narrow principles of personal hates and personal ambitions. The party that will reconsecrate itself to the service of the country under the guidance of great principles will come again into the country of this outpers of that time ran so high that Thomas Jefferson found it personally unpleasant to continue as the Secretary of State in George Washington's first administration, and the party spirit of that time ran so high that Thomas Jefferson found it personally unpleasant to continue as the Secretary of State in George Washington's first administration, and the party spirit of that time ran so high that Thomas Jefferson found the party spirit of that time rans ohlithen the party spirit of that the party spirit of that the party spirit of that the party spirit of restrain interstate commerce.

The following are named as defendants to the suit: Board of Trade of the city of Chicago; Edward Andrew, president; Frank D. Rice and Albert E. Cross, vice-presidents, and J. E. Cunningham, David S. Lasier, Leslie F. Gates, John Garden, Robert McDourgal, Joseph Simmons, Adolph Gerstenberg, Benjamin S. Wilson, L. Harry Freeman, George B. Quinn, John A. Rogers, John R. Manff and William L. Gresson, directors of the board of Trade, din transit to Chicago is designated, the petition points out, as grain "to arrive," Immediately after the close of each day's session, the Board of Trade, and leged the exchange absolutely fixes the price to be offered for such states from the closing hour to the opening the following day. cause of law and order as is that done by a decision such as the decision in question; and no anarchist ever can or ever will hurt the courts as they are hurt by such action as this of the highest court of the State of Idaho.

Remember that if the position of the Bernstorff's Address. Idaho court in punishing its critics for contempt is proper, then Abraham Lincoln should have been jailed and fined for his words about the Court in the Court in in certain cases, usually affecting labor, have rendered decisions which were wholly improper, wholly reactive when the union. tionary, and fraught with the gravest injustice to those classes of the community standing most in need of justice. What is needed here is not the right to recall the judge, who in some right to recall the judge, who in some Although he abhorred war for any the firmness of his moral actionary interpretation to its consti-tution, but the right of the people themselves to express after due delibrespectively. The people Must Decide.

"I hold that in such a case as the bakeshop case, in such a case as the workmen's compensation act, in such a case as the tenement house cigar factory act, in such a case as the act providing for the safeguarding of a dangerous machinery, in such a case as the eight-hour law, that it is for the people themselves to decide whether such a law is or is not to stand war. On ther such a law is or is not to stand on the statute books. I do not care

Substituting the word "Progressive" for "Republican" in a letter written by Lincoln—the substitution being, Colterests.'

Onel Roosevelt said, only that of the name of the Progressive party of today for the progressive party of Lin-coln's time-Colonel Roosevelt read the letter as follows:

"As to the matter of fusion, I am for it if it can be had on (Progressive) grounds; and I am not for it on any grounds; and I am not for it on any other terms. A fusion on any other terms would be as foolish as unprincipled. It would lose the whole (of what we have), while the common enemy would still carry (all the vote that is hostile to us). The question of men is a different one. There are good patriotic men and able statesmen (in this territory opposed to us) whom I would cheerfully support if they would now place themselves on (Progressive) grounds, but I am (Progressive) grounds, but I am against letting down the (Progressive) standard a hairsbreadth."

"What Lincoln then said as to platform principles, men and methods, apor amalgamate the Progressives with any other party in our own days."

McCombs His Guest.

McCombs His Guest.

William F. McCombs, chairman of he Democratic National Committee, was at the dinner as Colonel Roosevelt's guest.

was at the dinner as Colonel Roosevelt's guest.

Millions of voters will join the Progressive party when they are sure that it is an organized force that will last, in the opinion of Albert J. Beveridge, former United States Senator from Indiana. Mr. Beveridge said in part:

"Who can tell what Republican or Democratic principles are to-day? The word 'Republican' means one thing in Wisconsin and the opposite thing in Pennsylvania; the Governor of Connecticut and the Governor of Washington are both Democrats, yet they are farther apart than Speaker Clark and Senator Root. The two old parties are nothing more than groups of warring factions. Their platforms are jumbles of meaningless compromises."

Mr. Beveridge roviewed the program of the Progressive party, and declared that it would end sectionalism and thus fulfill Lincoln's dream.

BAILEY STRONG FOR PARTY SOLIDARITY

Government.

ADDRESSES LEGISLATORS

Count Bernstorff Pays Tribute to Courage and "Big Heart" of Lincoln.

failed to show what had become of the fourth.

With her husband, who is employed by the Southern Express Company, Mrs. Parrish has been living at the bearding house, which is conducted by Brs. Jane Robinson, for about three Mrs. Jane Robinson, for about three Judge Knapp

After the conference Judge Knapp sarily be drawn from his conserva-tism.

Chine of Idaho,

"But the court did not stop here.

Hepresentatives of the railroad said

There was in Idaho a newspaper which We have had parties, some people say, since Jefferson's first administration. I say we have had parties since

Washington's first administration, and ported and sustained by a majority of the people, but if we continue in the bad habit of the last few years of But the damage they do, though feeling ourselves at liberty to dissolve great, is by no means as great to the cause of law and order as is that done to do so, with the knowledge that we have the desired to the cause of the cau fil' for corn, oars, value from five, by which the government alged the exchange absolutely fixes the fact to be offered for such staples from it parts of the country contracted for from the closing hour to the opening as following duy.

Bernstorff's Address.

As the board is open less than four ours, or only one-half of the ordinary usiness day, it is declared that these fixed prices control the bids of grain leafers for the other half of the business day. The rule has resulted, it is conspiracy and combination to revent country. Senator Offernan believed the canal toil questions affecting the "honor" or 'vital interest," of either country, Senator Offernan believed the canal toil questions affecting the "honor" or 'vital interest," while it was a question of 'vital interest," while and believe the canal toil questions affecting the received of the fact of meet all the difficulties of the case. In this State, for instance, there have been many well-meaning judges, who, in certain cases, usually affecting la-

Again referring to Lincoln's courage when war drew near, the speaker purpose, the firmness of his moral courage enabled him to take the great responsibility of leading the nation into a war for union and for freedom and through wears. eration their definite judgment as to what the Constitution shall permit in the way of legislation for social and through weary years of alternating success and disaster. He did not waver for a moment when many not waver for a moment when many anti-coercion meetings were held and a cry for peace at any price arose on Applying this thought to the present day, the ambassador declared:

"In our day there is a strong peace movement sweeping over all tries, and who will deny that it seems a beautiful idea to save the world forever from the mighty scourge of war. On the other hand, we must not forget that peace should never be bought at the price of sacrificing our on the statute books. I do not care whether you call this action of their construing the Constitution, or making the Constitution. I care for the fact and not for the name."

Substituting the word "Progressive" man should be ready to give his life for "Republican" in a leter written by Count Bernstorff quoted Lincoln to mphasize his argument that the "fate of civilization in this country was in-volved in the issue of the contest."

"The craving of the soul of the German nation for unity," he declared, "is the last, but not the least, reason

IT IS PERILOUS TO NEGLECT A COUGH OR COLD

It sows the seed for grippe, pneumonia or consumption.

Don't trifle with syrups and nostrums; take Scott's Emulsion which effectively drives out colds and builds strength and resistanceforce to avoid sickness.

Ask for and INSIST on SCOTT'S. Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J. 12-76

Good Office Furniture For busy men, and a large stock to people in their sympathy with Abraham Lincoln and his policy."

SYDNOR & HUNDLEY, INC.,

The count referred to the days when the United States was represented in Berlin by George Bancroft, whose attitude, continued the speaker, "assured him a cordial acceptance in Berlin. He was received into the inner circles of scholarly registated and political life. of scholarly, social and political life, and formed habits of friendship with Bismarck and Holike. The political situation of Europe was such that Bancroft regarded the Unitarian tendencies, in both countries as correlating." He then custed Bancroft as Springfield. III., February 12.—Count is understood he will get to work on a further investigation of the situation as soon as he returns.

ROOSEVEL AGAN

ATAMAS COUNT ("You will not deem it inappropriate for me to say that, as a Democrat, I sincerely trust if you are able to elect one worthy to take his place, and as an American I may be permitted to express the hope that if the choice shall fall outside of the progressive column. The action of the Progressive column. The action of the right of the people of Idaho's electoral vote would have been in the Progressive column. The action of the reactionary court, taken in combination with the action of the reactionary court, taken in combination with the action of the reactionary court, taken in combination with the action of the registed in the deprivation of the right of the people of Idaho's electoral vote would have been in the deprivation of the right of the people of Idaho's electoral vote would have been in the industry to which I belong is will render myself immenses by unpopular with the delegation from blinois in the Union in America, it could never that the Union in America, it could never was quoted to show the friendship between the Union in America, it could never was quoted to show the friendship between the Union in America, it could never was quoted to show the friendship between the Union in America, it could never was quoted to show the friendship between the Union in America, it could never was quoted to show the friendship between the Union in America, it could never was quoted to show the friendship between the Union in America, it could never was quoted to show the friendship between the Union in America, it could never the union in America, it could never the union in America, it could never was quoted to show the friendship between the Union in America, it could never the union in America, it c explanation."

After this quotation from Bismarck Count Bernstorff concluded with the hope that this bond of friendship would remain unbroken.

officers should be construed as service with the troops. Another amendment providing for the return to service of officers who have been retired for phy-sical disability upon recovery was in per cent in the salaries of officers en-gaged in the aviation service was eliminated because of the fact that this subject is under consideration by houses in independent bills. O increase in appropriation, $25,000 is for the rifle shooting competition at Camp Perry, Ohio, next September in connection with the centennial cele-bration of Commodore Perry's victory on Lake Erle

System Is Criticized,

Washington, February 12 .- Criticism to-day of the present conservation system in the United States because of the power it gives to departmental heads in Washington to regulate the affairs in participate in the pageant March 3. Washington to regulate the affairs in participate in the page great areas of Western States, was The augmented number voiced in the Senate to-day by Sena-tor Thomas, of Colorado. He declared the present system of wighdrawing will complete the trip to Washington, scheduled to arrive March 1.

The suffragists who will go out to the present system of withdrawing water power sites from public entry was actually tending toward strength ening monopoly, rather than hindering it, and that the system followed are to be composed of women musicians exhardship and injustice to the Cost of Public Health.

Washington. February 12.—An aggregate of $19,500,086 is expended anthe public health state of the various departments, according to a statement to-day forwarded to the Senate by the Secretary of the Treasmar The statement is made in com-

Washington, February 12.—Postmaster Merritt this afternoon put over a "red parade" on Pennsylvania Avenue from the post-office to Fifteenth Street, Northwest, that started many inquiries. He was not trying to give a spectacular show, but simply to marshal into ular show, but simply to marshal into line a vehicle post-office equipment, provided for his office, that is un-equaled in the United States.

Three weeks ago contracts were let for eleven auto trucks and thirty-two wagons to handle the collection and delivery mail service, as well as the new parcels post business. To-day at noon the forty-three vehicles were drawn up in line on Eleventh Street, drawn up in line on Eleventh Street, below the avenue, for inspection by Postmaster-General Hitchcock. Dr. Charles P. Granfield, First Assistant Postmaster-General, and the bureau chiefs of the department, after the postmaster, Assistant Postmaster Robinson and the post-office superintendents had looked them over.

The outfit includes five big auto trucks for the parcels post service, which were built by the Kessel Motor Car Company, of Hartford, Wis.; six auto trucks, for mail collections and deliveries, built by the Stewart Motor Corporation, of Buffalo, N. Y., and thir-

Corporation, of Buffalo, N. Y., and thir-ty-two wagons, ranging from the small one-carrier collection cart to wagons of the largest size. of the largest size.

Every truck and every wagon is painted a bright vermilion and bears on its side the inscription "U. S. Mail," with the additional inscription, "Parcel Post," on the auto trucks designed for that service. Each wagon is drawn by a selected horse, arrayed in new harness, brass mounted, with "U. S. Mail" on the bridle blinders, and driven by a carrier in the gray official uniform of the postal service.

form of the postal service. Together they made a handsome dis-play. The Postmaster-General re-marked after his inspection that "they will provide for the capital of the na-tion a post-office equipment that I have long wished to see. I do not believe it is surpassed in the world."

Postmaster Merritt, too, was especially proud of his new equipment, and he was the recipient of many congratuations.

Housebreaking Charge Against Him. William Landrum, who has been ar-rested innumerable times for drunkenwas arrested this morning short-for Infants and Children.

CASTORIA

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. It destroys Worms and allays Feverishness. It relieves Constipation, Wind Colic, all Teething Troubles and Diarrhea. It regulates the Stomach and Bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea—The Mother's Friend.

The Kind You Have Always Bought 7 Bears the Signature of

In Use For Over 30 Years.

SUFFRAGETTE ARMY OFF FOR WASHINGTON

New York, February 12.—"Votes for cury stood many degrees higher that women! Votes for women! Washington!" it did to-day.

Washington! Wilson!" The system miles were made to

This was the shrill feminine yell that attracted crowds of early morning workers to the Hudson Terminal, in downtown New York, te-day to watch serted.

The aviation provision of the House bill providing for an increase of 50 per cent in the salaries of officers engaged in the aviation service was cloaks and hoods and carried knap-

Plans for Reception.

Washington, February 12.—On the day that "General" Rosalie Jones and a few miles of Washington on their long "hike" from New York, they will be met by several hundred suffragists of "war" correspondents who are ac from here, headed by a brass band, companying them. from here, headed by a brass band. Plans for this escort into Washington were outlined at suffrage headquarters meet the marchers will be women who have been active in the work here. In addition, there will be a large body of Reduced to Half Dozen. Metuchen, N. J., February 12.-It was half frozen "army" of sixteen suffragettes-reduced by cold and exposure gregate of $19,800,086 is expended annually by the governments are not to maintain the public health strice of the various departments according to shortly after 6 o'clock to-night to make its first "bivouac" of its 250-mile march to Washington, to carry a mesy, but her in, and the bonds in bonds in ses contribuses contribuses contribuse sustaining sustaining should be sustained by the Senate by the Senate with the terms of a resolution introduced by Senator Works, and sustaining should be sustained by the Senate.

Senate by the Secretary of the Treasury to Washington, to carry a message to Woodrow Wilson on the day of his inauguration as President. From the first day of articles are the sustaining of the machine with the terms of a resolution of his inauguration as President. From the first day of articles are the sustaining of the sustaining of the sustaining the sustaining of the sustaining the introduced by Senator Works, and adopted by the Senate.

The health division of the War Department is maintained at an annual cost of $5,741,090, and that of the navy at a cost of $5,730,522, and that of the Agricultural Department at $3,899.
202. The health service of the Panama Canal costs $1,620,391 a year. The entire health service of all departments employ 15,632 persons.

"PUTS OVER" HIS EXHIBIT OF POST-OFFICE AUTOS

Equipment for the Rapid Handling of the War Department of Malis Displayed by Postmassate fer Merritt.

Washington, February 12.—Postmaster Merritt, washington, February 12.—Postmaster from the post-office to Fifteenth Street, Northwest these testes testes to march the merrite of the Work of the Seventh Regiment Armory here. The three former holders of the Utile—Tanks and sought warmth indoors and twentles unostentatiously left the ranks and sought warmth indoors and the services deserters, by boarding trains for their homes.

Starting at 10 o'clock from Newark, after a tube ride under the Hudson River from New York, the women covered sixteen miles in the face of a bitterly cold win and over icy roads. The temperature was hovering around the zero mark, and the women arrived here with their noses and ears red and tingling. The remaining sixteen, commanded by "General" Rosalic G. Jones, are the "regulars" who pledged themselves to march the entire distance. The other 184 had voluntered for one day's march, but did not count on the cold weather, profering their promises when the mer-from the post-office to Fifteenth Street, Northwest the test states tested to the first defeated and the count of the West Side Club, and the promises when the mer-from the post-office to Fifteenth Street, Northwest the test states to the first devented and the count of the Game Away Property.

OBITUARY

Rev. Charles Lynch.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Winchester, Va., February 12.—Messages received from Troy, Mo., announce the death from heart disease of Rev. Charles Lynch, aged about forty years, who had been pastor of the Southern Methodist Church there since being transferred by Bishop Colling Denny from Stephens, this county. in October, 1911. His second wife and four children survive. His remains were interred at Covington, Va., near which place he was born. He was formerly associate editor of the Baltimore Southern Methodist.

Captain L. A. Frazier.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Salisbury, N. C., February 12.—Cap-tain I. A. Frazier, aged fifty years, one of the oldest and best known conductors on the Southern Railway, died at his home in Salisbury to-day from paralysis. He had been desperately ill several days. He formerly had a run between Salisbury and Asheville on the old Richmond and Danville road, and at his death was a leading member, of the Order of Railway Conductors. He is survived by his widow and one son, Arthur Frazier, of Winston-Salem.

Thomas R. Campbell.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Luray, Va., February 12.—Thomas Campbell, for four years postmaster of Luray under the Harrison adminis-tration, three terms Mayor, and for-mer chief of police of this town, and deputy marshal for this district, died at his home in Luray to-day, aged eighty-one years. He had been iden-tified with other branches of the Fed-eral service. He is survived by eight children. His death was due to infirmities incident to old age.

W. H. Hodge.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

South Boston, Va., February 12.—W.

H. Hodge, aged seventy-six years, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. C.

T. Lovalese at this place to day after. Inoss, was arrested this morning shortly before 1 o'clock by Patrolmen Jacobini and Goode, on the charge of attempted to break into the store of H. Grimmell's Sons, 304 East Broad Street, with intent to commit larceny.
Landrum, who appeared to be drunk, was nabbed by a citizen, after he had smashed a front window, and he was turned over to the officers and locked up at the Second Police Station.

at the home of his daughter, Mrs. C.
T. Lovelace, at this place, to-day, after an illness of several months. He is survived by three daughters, Mrs. C.
T. McDonald, of Norfolk; Mrs. C. T.
Lovelace, at this place, to-day, after an illness of several months. He is survived by three daughters, Mrs. C.
T. McDonald, of Norfolk; Mrs. C.
T. McDonald, of Norfolk; Mrs. C.
T. McDonald, of Norfolk; Mrs. A.
McDonald, of Norfolk; Mrs. A.
To McDonald, of Norfolk; Mrs. C.
Tovelace, at this place, to-day, after an illness of several months. He is survived by three daughters, Mrs. A.
To McDonald, of Norfolk; Mrs. C.
Tovelace, of South Boston, and Miss Mildred Hodge, of St. Vincent's Hospital, Norfolk. He was an active membetter of the Presbytorian Church, and was loved and respected by all who knew him.

The sixteen miles were made in about five hours of actual marching. Headed by a platoon of mounted podowntown New York, to-day to watch the departure of the army of suffrage these who are going to march to Washington to take part in the women's suffrage pageant on March 3.

Sixteen "regulars," who have promised to march the entire distance of 230 miles, and some half a hundred sympathizers, who planned to march at least for the first day, mustered shortly before 9 o'clock at the call of "General" Rosalie G. Jones, commander of the expedition and veteran of the recent "hike" to Albany. They left the committeed in an arch which was account to the departure from Newark was made after "General" Jones had delivered a speech, announcing they carried a secret message to the new President of the United tates to be delivered him as soon as he will receive it, "as whope, on his inauguration day."

The first stop was at Elizabeth, N, J, a five-mile march which was account of the committee of the united portions of the departure from Newark was made after "General" Jones had delivered a speech, announcing they carried a secret message to the new President of the United tates to be delivered him as soon as he will receive it. "as hope, on his inauguration day." lice and two volunteer

The first stop was at Elizabeth, J., a five-mile march which was a complished in an hour and There it was found that the "army's" strength had dwindled to sixty when the women sat down to lunch at the club house of a fraternal organiza-tion, Resuming the 'hike" at 2 o'clock it was discovered that thirty more marchers had decided to return to day that "General" Rosalie Jones and their homes. Another hour's marching her suffragist "army" arrives within against wintry blasts resulted in reducing their number to the original sixteen "regulars" and the small army Heading the van was a vellow "ambeth Freeman, the "official orator." granted suffrage to women. all along the route and cheers were frequent. At Elizabeth the marchers were greeted by the Rev. Antoinette Brown Blackwell, more than eighty years old, and said to have been a suf-fragette longer than any other woman in the country.

To-morrow the army marches to Princeton, where student sympathizers in Princeton University plan to wel-

Child Dend, Gave Away Property.
Clinton, Okla., February 12.—In accordance with an old tribal custom, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Standing, well-to-do Cheyenne Indians, burned or gave away all their personal property immediately after their sixteen-year-old daughter died here yesterday. They did this, they said, "to comfort the spirit of the little girl."

The N. & W. is the most comforta-ble way to Norfolk. The Norfolk Limited and the Ocean Shore Limited run through solid and quickcutting down all other schedules .-Advertisement.

Cuts and Bruises

No remedy will deaden the pain or take the soreness from Cuts. Bruises, Strains and Sprains quicker will save any amount of pain and can be taken internally for Colic, Cramps, etc. Nothing better for Toothache and Sore Throat.

One trial will convince you. An Iron Worker Writes.

"Working at my trade (Old Dominion Iron and Nail Works) I get bruised and cut frequently, and I find that Noah's takes away all the soreness immediately. I cheerfully recommend it."—Edward Ryan, Swansboro, Va.

This cut—Noah's Ark—on every genu-ne package. Sold by all dealers in medicines at 25c, 50c and $1 per hottle. Noah Remedy Co. Inc.

Distinctively Individual"